By James

Statistics From World War One

Causes of the War: Imperialism, Alliances, Nationalism, Militarism, and the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand. Some would say that the assassination was a cause but because when he died Austria basically had enough and started a fight but still not a main cause, the whole thing was coming to a boil and was only a matter of time until it boiled over. With alliances consisting at that time a small conflict will have there allies come and join the fight no matter the size of the conflict, and then their allies allies would join and one conflict leading to another rapidly increased to the point of being called the War to end all Wars. Nationalism because everyone is greedy and wants to be better than the other. Imperialism because a powerful nation will rule colonies to gain more resources and when many are imperialistic battles start popping up leading to Militarism. Militarism was a part of the war starting because it all was an arm race to see who can have the better army.

Central powers

The central powers are or were Austria-Hungary, GERMANY, Bulgaria, and Ottoman Empire.

Allies

Serbia, Russia, France, United Kingdom, Italy, Belgium, along with United States.

10 Important people

Woodrow Wilson

Woodrow Wilson being the president at the time wanted to be neutral along with many other Americans. But when a German U-boat sank the passenger liner Lusitania shattered all hope of being neutral. He then was tasked with getting the United States to get ready for the war. And with the propaganda anything German was suspected with the war.

Teddy Roosevelt

I believe he is an important part of WW1 for the American side. He helped push towards going to war. He kept trying to get a special volunteer group but kept getting shot down by Woodrow Wilson. The most popular believe that Wilson kept saying no is that if Roosevelt came back as a war hero he could probably take presidency. Roosevelt said that he wouldn't come back from the war to the reporters.

Gavrilo Princip

This man was important primarily because he topped the glass to make it topple over.

Archduke Franz Ferdinand

He was important to the war because his being assassinated by Gavrilo Princip started the great war.

Kaiser Wilhelm II

He did not help in the coming of the first world war. But because of his leadership style Hitler became what he did.

Paul Cambon

Paul Cambon was important because he kept France and Great Britain in an alliance.

Helmuth von Moltke

Helmuth von Moltke is important because he was one of the German generals. He never stopped sending them in which if he played it more strategically the outcome would have changed.

Alfred von Tirpitz

Alfred von Tirpitz was a naval officer, or as close as you can call back then. He was mainly known as being the leader in the submarine class of warfare. With his leadership the German navy became the second largest in the world.

Raymond Poincare

Raymond Poincare was the president of France and tried to be in an alliance with Franco-Russian alliance. Together they made military plans together.

William II

William the II was the emperor of Germany. At first it started as trying to save Austria Hungary from collapse ended up as being the Great War. He also encouraged the generals to do all the work.

Keep the home fires burning

Keep the Home Fires burning

from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

They were summoned from the hillside, they were called in from the glen,
And the country found them ready at the stirring call for men.
Let no tears add to their hardships, as the soldiers pass along,
And although your heart is breaking, make it sing this cheery song:

Keep the Home Fires burning,
While your hearts are yearning,
Though your lads are far away they dream of home.
Theres a silver lining, through the dark clouds shining,
Turn the dark cloud inside out, 'till the boys come home.

Overseas there came a pleading,
"Help a nation in distress."
And we gave our glorious laddies, honour bade us do no less,
For no gallant son of freedom to a tyrant's yoke should bend,
And a noble heart must answer to the sacred call of "Friend".

Keep the Home Fires Burning,
While your hearts are yearning,
Though your lads are far away they dream of home.
Theres a silver lining, through the dark clouds shining,
Turn the dark cloud inside out 'till the boys come home

Ivor Novello was an composer, actor manager, and served the Royal naval air Service.

Up to your waist in water,
Up to your eyes in slush
Using the kind of language,
That makes the sergeant blush;
Who wouldn't join the army?
That's what we all inquire
Don't we pity the poor civilians sitting around the fire.

Oh! Oh! Oh! it's a lovely war,
Who wouldn't be a soldier eh?
Oh! It's a shame to take the pay.
As soon as 'reveille' has gone
We feel just as heavy as lead,
But we never get up till the sergeant brings
Our breakfast up to bed.

Oh! Oh! Oh! it's a lovely war,
What do we want with eggs and ham
When we've got plum and apple jam?
Form fours! Right turn!
How shall we spend the money we earn?
Oh! Oh! Oh! it's a lovely war.

Oh! Oh! Oh! it's a lovely war,
Who wouldn't be a soldier eh?
Oh! It's a shame to take the pay.

Oh! Oh! Oh! it's a lovely war.

Come to the cookhouse door boys,
Sniff at the lovely stew,
Who is it says the Colonel gets better grub than you?
Any complaints this morning?
Do we complain, not we
What's the matter with lumps of onion floating around your tea?

Oh! Oh! Oh! it's a lovely war,
Who wouldn't be a soldier eh?
Oh! It's a shame to take the pay.
As soon as 'reveille' has gone

Over There

George M. Cohan made Broadway a thing.

Johnnie, get your gun

Get your gun, get your gun

Take it on the run

On the run, on the run

Hear them calling, you and me

Every son of liberty

Hurry right away

No delay, go today

Make your daddy glad

To have had such a lad

Tell your sweetheart not to pine

To be proud her boy's in line

Over there, over there

Send the word, send the word over there

That the Yanks are coming

The Yanks are coming

The drums rum-tumming

Everywhere

So prepare, say a prayer

Send the word, send the word to beware

We'll be over, we're coming over

And we won't come back till it's over

Over there

Johnnie, get your gun

Get your gun, get your gun

Johnnie show the Hun

Who's a son of a gun

Hoist the flag and let her fly

Yankee Doodle do or die

Pack your little kit

Show your grit, do your bit

Yankee to the ranks

From the towns and the tanks

Make your mother proud of you

And the old Red, White and Blue

Over there, over there

Send the word, send the word over there

That the Yanks are coming

The Yanks are coming

The drums rum-tumming

Everywhere

So prepare, say a prayer

Send the word, send the word to beware

We'll be over, we're coming over

And we won't come back till it's over

Over there

World War I Poems

In Flanders Fields by John McCrae

In Flanders' Fields

In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders' fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch, be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.

Major John McCrae, 1915

In Flanders' Fields ...

Flanders Fields

*In Flanders Fields the poppies grow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, while in the sky
The larks, still singing bravely, fly
Unheard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset's glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands, we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high;
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies blow
In Flanders Fields.*

Into Battle

The naked earth is warm with Spring,
And with green grass and bursting trees
Leans to the sun's gaze glorying,
And quivers in the sunny breeze;
And life is Colour and Warmth and Light,
And a striving evermore for these;
And he is dead who will not fight,
And who dies fighting has increase.

The fighting man shall from the sun
Take warmth, and life from glowing earth;
Speed with the light-foot winds to run
And with the trees to newer birth;
And find, when fighting shall be done,
Great rest, and fulness after dearth.

All the bright company of Heaven
Hold him in their bright comradeship,
The Dog star, and the Sisters Seven,
Orion's belt and sworded hip:

The woodland trees that stand together,
They stand to him each one a friend;
They gently speak in the windy weather;
They guide to valley and ridges end.

The kestrel hovering by day,
And the little owls that call by night,
Bid him be swift and keen as they,
As keen of ear, as swift of sight.

The blackbird sings to him: "Brother,
brother,
If this be the last song you shall sing,
Sing well, for you may not sing another;
Brother, sing."

In dreary doubtful waiting hours,
Before the brazen frenzy starts,
The horses show him nobler powers;
O patient eyes, courageous hearts!

And when the burning moment breaks,
And all things else are out of mind,
And only joy of battle takes
Him by the throat and makes him blind,
Through joy and blindness he shall know,
Not caring much to know, that still
Nor lead nor steel shall reach him, so
That it be not the Destined Will.

The thundering line of battle stands,
And in the air Death moans and sings;
But Day shall clasp him with strong hands,
And Night shall fold him in soft wings.

Futility

Move him into the sun—
Gently its touch awoke him once,
At home, whispering of fields half-sown.
Always it woke him, even in France,
Until this morning and this snow.
If anything might rouse him now
The kind old sun will know.

Think how it wakes the seeds—
Woke once the clays of a cold star.
Are limbs, so dear-achieved, are sides
Full-nerved, still warm, too hard to stir?
Was it for this the clay grew tall?
—O what made fatuous sunbeams toil
To break earth's sleep at all?

Three other events around the world

Russian revolution

Around 1917 the Russian revolution happened. This revolution was led by Vladimir Lenin which ended the centuries of imperial rule which in most places is gone. The leading families were all killed.

Titanic

The famous Titanic was an Royal Mail Ship which was a luxury passenger liner along with mail of sorts. As most people know the titanic sank from an iceberg. This event was such an important one because everyone at the time thought the ship was unsinkable. This sinking really shocked the world because of its unsinkable title and because of all the important people who were on it at the time.

Tanks

Tanks did not see a lot of action since they were introduced at the end of the war. They still shocked the battlefield though. They were nearly indestructible at the time. They had a very mobile cannon compared to the ones that weren't on the tanks. There were two types of tanks at the time. They were called the male tanks (able to attack with artillery), and female tanks (for infantry with machine guns).

Outcome of the War

Allied/Associated

Russia

There total casualties was 9,150,000. Prisoners and missing were 2,500,000.

British Empire

Total casualties was 3,190,235 and had 191,652.

France

There were 6,160,800 casualties and had 537,000 prisoners or missing.

Italy

Italy's total number of casualties are 2,197,000 and missing or prisoners were 600,000.

United States

The United States had 323,018 casualties and 4,500 prisoners/missing.

Japan

Japan sent 800,000 troops and only had 1,210 die and only had 3 missing. And having a low rate of 0.15% of dieing.

Romania

535,706 casualties and 80,000 missing.

Serbia

331,106 total casualties with 152,958 missing.

Belgium

Total number of casualties of 93,061 and a missing number of 34,658.

Greece

Missing 1,000 and having 27,000 casualties

Portugal

20,000 casualties and 7,000 missing is a lot for Montenegro because they only have 50,000 in all.

Central

Germany

7,142,558 total casualties and missing 1,152,800.

Austria-Hungary

Missing/prisoners were 2,200,000 and a total of 7,020,000 casualties.

Turkey

Having 975,000 casualties and with 250,000 missing.

Bulgaria

Missing/Prisoners of 27,029 and a casualty number of 266,919.

National boundaries

Events that happened because of WW1

Technology

After WW1 technology mainly on the battlefield got more gruesome. One person got a machine gun while the others have rifles and don't know how to stop the machine gun. More people would die because of the technological advancements of WW1.

Politics

Nationalism

After World War I nationalism became more popular to the rest of the world.

Militarism

After people seen how nationalism is people started revolting for nationalism. The reason being that nationalism actually has the jpeople ask and get what they want. With militarism governments use military, fear, to control people.

Major Rolles

Central Powers

Germany

Germany was important because they had some of the largest forces in the war.

Austro-Hungarian Empire

The Austro-Hungarian Empire is important to the war for the reason of the archduke ferdinand. The empire was the one to dip the cup.

Ottoman empire and the Kingdom

The empire joined the war because of the russians mobilisation forces to confront the germans. And was important because of only being one of the three forces.

Allies

All of Great Britain

Great Britain tried to stop a war from happening but in the end they joined the war but they did not have to.

France

France helped train American soldiers. And the importance is mainly just as a choke point since they were enemies on each side.

Russia

Russia was majorly important because of their amount of troops. Without their troops things might of ended out differently.

The other Allies that joined later

The other allies were not as important as the others except the American troops which had a great deal of people.. The reason being that they came at the very end and did relatively nothing compared to russia.

Fifteen important people

COLLUM ONE

Propaganda doughboy

Everyone wanted a name for the American troops but none of the nicknames they came up with really stuck. The Propaganda doughboy is basically just a nickname for the American troops. It was a nickname that just kicked around until World War One.

Alvin York

Alvin York was an American man that was a wonderful marksman even at such a young age. His religion was against war but he was drafted. Even though he was against it he managed to take 132 prisoners “single handedly” but no one knows if he did or went with his troops. He also was significant because he brought education to Tennessee.

Espionage Act 1917

It basically stopped any propaganda for any other country that they are against that would change a recruitments mind about joining.

British Navy

The British navy was important because they kind of kept the seas free of Germans.

Schenck v. United States

This was one of the first times that someone broke the espionage act.

COLUM TWO

Trench Warfare

Trench warfare was the worst kind of warfare with disease being rampant.

Lusitania

The sinking of the Lusitania was the reason for America joining the war.

Stalemate

Stalemates happened so often because defensive weapons were much better than offensive weapons.

Contraband

There are three levels of contraband 1 no weapons gets past, 2 no food goes to military, 3 it's all good.

German U-boats

A German U-boat is what brought the USA into the fray. They were devastating because there was no reasonable means to attack them.

THIRD COLUMN

Reparations

When a nation loses a battle they pay for the damages.

Wheatless Wednesday

Basically just the government asking the people to not eat as much wheat just like meatless monday for meet but wheat.

Convoy system

The convoy system greatly stopped the German U-boat damage.

Armistice

No one particularly win in an Armistice. It is mainly when both sides agree to stop fighting.

Sedition

Basically just an act that is served to anyone that messes anything that involves with the government or what they do.

Profiles/biographies of four important individuals

Archduke Franz Ferdinand

He was one of the tipping point of the cup so to say.

Gavrilo Princip

He is important because he is one of the reasons ww1 started.

Winston Churchill

He was the leader of the british navy.

Alfred von Tirpitz

Wanted to keep the German navy with the british

Reason the US joined WWI

The US joined WWI because of an German U-Boat sand the cruise liner called the Lusitania. I agree because if we did not join the Germans might just start ammassing for an attack or America would not be seen as strong.
